Green Dirt Farm Unveils Exciting New Culinary Venture: Green Dirt on Oak

Kansas City, MO – 12/01/23 – Green Dirt Farm is thrilled to announce the grand opening of its newest culinary venture, Green Dirt on Oak, located at 1601 Oak Street in the Crossroads district. Scheduled to open its doors in February 2024, this innovative dining destination promises to reimagine the culinary landscape of Kansas City.

Green Dirt on Oak is not just a restaurant; it's an experience offering a unique insight into the art of cheese-making within its walls. Guests can enjoy a delightful combination of late breakfast and lunch service, a one-of-a-kind "cheese hour," and exquisite fine dining experiences in the evenings, all of which showcase Green Dirt Farm's renowned artisan cheeses. The restaurant also boasts a retail counter where patrons can purchase locally-made items to take home and an event space for meetings and special occasions.

The two-story space has been meticulously designed to provide an unforgettable gastronomic journey. Guests can witness the cheese-making process through unique viewing windows, explore the cheese market, and even peek into the open kitchen where culinary magic happens. For a breath-taking dining experience, the restaurant features an enchanting rooftop deck set to open in early spring, offering panoramic views of the Kansas City skyline.

"We're thrilled to bring our cheeses to our loyal fans and customers in Kansas City and create a unique experience for our community highlighting delicious mission-driven small-batch foods," says Sarah Hoffmann, Founder and Owner of Green Dirt Farm.

This exciting venture resulted from a collaboration between Sarah Hoffmann and Executive Chef Oskar Arévalo, who joined Green Dirt Farm during the pandemic and rapidly progressed to Head Cheesemaker. Chef Arévalo's fine dining and cheese-making background makes him the perfect leader for this new endeavor.

What sets Green Dirt Farm apart is its commitment to sustainability and community. Green Dirt on Oak remains dedicated to supporting the local community and promoting responsibly made foods. The grand opening promises an event filled with delectable tastes, community spirit, and the essence of Green Dirt Farm's culinary excellence.
